PRESIDENT ENJOYS BIG APPLE PIE AT HOME OF HIS AUNT Wife of Accused Holds to

Lunches With Miss Delia Torrey After Attending Church

WORCESTER CROWD HEARS AN ADDRESS

Millbury Committee of Welcome Wear Frock Coats and Silk Hats.

MILLBURY, Mass., April 3.-President MILLBURY, Mass., April 3.—Fresident Taft visited Miss Delia Torrey, his aged aunt, at her home here today for the first time since last fall. The President's and killed his family physician, Dr. train arrived shortly after 9 o'clock.

day and a large crowd of sightseers hear a jury pronounce his fate. were gathered at the station to greet the President. A committee of local citizens in high hats and frock coats train. As soon as the train arrived at the station, Capt. Archibald W. Butt, the President's military aide, invited the delegation into the special car, where Mr. Taft was officially welcomed to Military and the delegation of Separate Vectors and the case of Separate Vectors and the state of a separate Vector of Separate Vectors and the state of a separate Vector of Separate Vector of Separate Vectors and the state of the state of

Mr. Taft, accompanied by Capt. A. W.

with Torrey, Captain Butt, and Horace
D. Taft, the President's brother, attended divine services at the Second Congregational Church. Horace D. Taft, the Fresident at Providence can't have been with me."

"Dr. Wendel had not been drinking, as Mr. Carter has testified, on the night has morning.

morning.

The President had luncheon with his tender to be a state of the president always been especially fond of apple picture. The President always been especially fond of apple picture one is baked especially for him. ay this practice was followed, as a partments he found the physician in the proper that the proper that the physician in the physician physician in the physician physician in the physician physi

About 1 e clock Mr. Taft entered an auto car to motor to Worcester, where he was to address a joint convention of railway trainmen this afternoon in Mechanics' Hall. Before his address a short reception was scheduled at which Mr. Taft was to shake hands with about 150 invited guests. Later he will give a special reception to the women who are attending the convention.

Due Back Monday.

is due to reach Washington at 9:45 o'clock tomorrow morning.
The trip from Washington to Millbury was without any unusual incident. The breakfast was served before leaving Providence, where the President's special car spent several hours. At Woonsocket a large crowd had gathered and in response to their cheers Mr. Taft went out to the platform and began to make a speech, but it was cut off abruptly by the starting of the train.

A PICTURESQUE setting is that of this drams, which treats of the loss

TORNADO IN OHIO TIES UP RAILROAD

TOLEDO, Ohio, April 3 .- A miniature tornado passed through wester Ohio a half mile north of Radnor this morning. The wind twisted off trees and carried down eight troiley poles of the C. D. & M. and five telegraph poles of the Hocking Valley railroad. Traffic on the C. D. & M. was tied up for eight hours.

CARDINAL GIBBONS TALKS ON PEACE

BALTIMORE, Md., April 3 .- That the BALTIMORE, Md., April 3.—That the weak nations of this world, conscious of their innocence and their inalienable rights, should exult in the existence of an internation board of arbitration because it will help to protect them from the bullying nations that are eager, through their greed and lust for territory, to seize soil that does not belong to them, was the statement of Cardinal Gibbons this amorning at soluemn high mass in the capedral.

WEATHER REPORT.

With the exception of showers this fternoon or tonight from the Middle afternoon or tonight from the Middle Mississippi valley eastward, the weather will be generally fair tonight and Monday over all districts.

It will be warmer Monday in New England and New York and cooler in the Plains States. It will be cooler tonight in the Plateau region with heavy frosts or freezing temperature.

FORECAST FOR THE DISTRICT. Showers this afternoon or tonight; Monday fair; light east to southeast winds.

The great question of whether the metrcpolis is to be "wet or dry" resolved itself into a matter of how many chances the saloon keepers were will-will be. If at that time the district at-TEMPERATURES. 58 to make any arrests was followed out Saloonkeepers in the west side from the pulice to the letter and the results the forties to the seventles seemed to were shown at once in the absence of offenders in the various magistrates excise regulations all day and no one seemed to have any trouble in gaining Dressed Headed Palings, $2.00 per 100. Dressed Square Pickets, $2.25 per 100. Dressed Square Posts, 35 Cents Apiece.

Frank Libbey Co., 6th & New York Ave.

Advt.

Dressed Square Pickets, $2.25 per 100. Dressed Square Posts, 35 Cents Apiece.

Frank Libbey Co., 6th & New York Ave.

Advt.

CARTER CASE GOES TO JURY TOMORROW

Resolution Not to Testify.

PUBLISHES LETTER EXONERATING SELF

Declares Doctor's Visit to Her Room Was Professional.

Aberdeen, Miss., April 3. ELYING upon a joint plea of the unwritten law and self defense, which is supported It was an especially balmy and sunny Robert P. Wendel, tomorrow will awaited the arrival of the Presidential be more damaging than favorable the wife of a son of Senator Vest-These ceremonies were short and informal. A moment later Mr. Taft alighted from the car. The crowd cheered as he entered an automobile and was driven to his aunt's home on Elm street. About fifty members of the local post of the Grand Army of the Republic stood at attention as the President drove she said:

"In justice to my own character and Butt and the local reception committee, were driven along Elm street direct to that of Dr. Wendel, I must say that Miss Torrey's home. A croyd of several thousand people thronged both sides of John's statement is not correct. The doctor was guilty of no improper conduct toward me."

After spending about half an hour And before the State closed its case, chatting with his auni, the President, the slain man's widow faced a crowded ant also admits. The President's party will leave Worcester about 4 o'clock in an automobile to return to Millbury to spend the remainder of the day with his aunt.

He will leave Millbury for Washington shortly after 8 o'clock. The return trip will be via New London, where at 10:43 the President's car will be attached to the Federal Express, which is due to reach Washington at 9:45 o'clock tomorrow morning.

The trip from Washington to Millbury was without any unusual incident. The breakfast was served before leaving. With a lightning change the State prosecutors, Attorneys Miller and PICTURESQUE setting is that of this drams, which treats of the loss of human life and wrecked reputations. of human life and wrecked reputations. Aberdeen is but little more than a country village, but it has supplied a sensation and a test of the "unwritten law" that must excite wonder and interest wherever the details become known.

The town, with its near $,000 souls, lies upon the Tombigbee river, famed in song and story. It is the country seat of Monroe, a country of planters and plantations. At the head of navigation, its commerce is greater than one would expect in a place of such modest size. It has its export cotton trade, lumber and planing mills, ice factories, cattle industries and general merchandise establishments. The town, with its near 8,00c souls, lies appeared to the fact that the county seat to Monroe, a county of planters and plantations. At the head of navigation, its commerce is greater than one would expect in a place of such modest size. Beginning tomorrow morning Colonel to the plantage and plantage and plantage and plantage and plantage and plantage and seven in a place of such modest size. Beginning tomorrow morning Colonel to the midst of a series of receptions and dinners in Aberdeen's business men are prosperups, for the tarmers of Monroe have a way of driving in from their plantations.

The town, with its near 8,00c souls, lies and the extraordinary strength of the extraordinary is likely to have its "Sage Loan Constitute of the plantage and sits Carnegle Library, say well as its Carnegle Library, say well as its Carnegle Library, she way of the plantage of such modest size. Beginning tomorrow morning Colonel beginning to the midst of a series of receptions and dinners in the United States in a few years is likely to have its "Sage Loan Constancy" as well as its Carnegle Library, she will be able to be the country will be able to be the ing to take.

GAYNOR'S EXCISE POLICY

OPENS NEW YORK SALOONS

Police, Following Out Instructions, Sit Idly by and See

Proprietors Do a Rushing Business Without Interruption.

The order that went forth early not will know where they stand.

Vatican Ruler and Scenes Roosevelt Will Visit

MAIN ENTRANCE AND FAMOUS SWISS GUARDS.

FOR LOAN SHARKS

To the end of their stay here, the Roosevelts were guarded by detectives squares, while a gordon of gendarmes has entirely surrounded the hotel con-

of detectives in plain clothes have thronged the hotel and neighboring squares, while a gorden of grands of the Manager of Late New York and gendarmes with as great solicitude terest Rate.

tinuously.

Neapolitan papers this morning contain enthusiastic accounts of the visit of Colonel Roosevelt and all give greatest attention to the interview he grant-NEW YORK, April 3.-Every city of Tributes to the memory of the late est attention to the interview he grant-ed Italian newspapermen yesterday af-size in the United States in a few years ternoon, together with the extraordinary reception given him at the opera last size in the United States in a few years is likely to have its "Sage Loan Con-afternoon by his former colleagues. The week and Orion H. Cheney, State supenevolent pawn shops will be in operation within a year.

Mr. Cheney has long been the leader n the campaign against loan sharks, tose exorbitant rates make the escape of their victims almost impossible. is his idea to conduct these loan offices on a system similar to the municipal rawn shops abroad, with the addition of loaning on salaries in deserving NEW YORK, April 3.—New York had more or less in the dark as to whether its first experience today of Mayor Gaynor's cure for the graft disease may not be worse than the graft ovil itself.

VICE PRESIDENT GOES TO UTICA

torney issues a crop of warrants they Will Be Back From Old Home to Established 1824. "Quality" is our password .- Advt.

HONORED IN HOUSE

Representatives.

JEWS WELCOMED BY CUNO RUDOLPH IN YEARLY SESSION

B'nai B'rith Opens Convention With Many Delegates Attending.

PRESIDENT ASKED TO MAKE ADDRESS

Adolph Kraus, of Chicago, Calls Meeting to Order at 10 o'Clock.

Leading Jews from all over America and from several sections of Europe, embers of the constitution grand lodge of the Independent Order of B'nai B'rith "Sons of the Covenant"-met at the Arlington Hotel this morning for the opening of the annual convention of the NIGHT UPROAR order, which will be in session daily until Wednesday. The attendance was Recognizing the standing of B'nsi President Gorman Threaten- Brith, which has for its main object the uniting of Israelites in the work of their highest interests, and those of humanity in general, officials of the National and District Governments have done all in their power to welcome the delegates to the convention. Taft Will Speak.

President Taft will receive the delenoon of yesterday, Maryland's senate gates at the White House and, with chamber witnessed the dramatic climax other public officials, will speak at the to a long drawn out and flerce fight banquet with which the convention will banquet with which the convention will On one side in the fight was Blair be brought to a close on Wednesday

Cuno H. Rudolph, president of the Board of Commissioners of the District. attended today's meeting and delivered an address of welcome on behalf of the people of Washington.

An elaborate program for the enter-ainment of the visitors has been arranged by a committee on arrangements, a committee whose me ncludes the foremost Jews of Washngton, and whose chairman, Simon waged, and at its conclusion to the world, as one, the major part of the public untilities bill moved an ad-

Initial Meeting Here.

Although the order of B'nai B'rith one breath.
"Roll call," "roll call," was shouted om all parts of the hall at once,
President Gorman struck the desk with has been in existence for over forty America, this is the first time it has is gavel.
"The Senate stands adjourned," he Washington. This fact was commented "Mr. President," shouted a Senator, "a upon by Commissioner Rudolph, Mr. Wolf, and several others who addressed call has been demanded.
esident Gorman proceeded to leave chair hurriedly and make for the neglect of Washington from Mr. Rudoor.

So quickly had the regulars acted and with such cold blooded determination had President Gorman closed the projectings with a rap of his gavel that Senator Lee and his friends were taken completely by surprise.

mpletely by surprise.
'Here, here, what is this?' said Sen- as often as possible. The convention was called to order thor Lee.

A giance at the vacant chair of the presiding officer and the hustling desk elerks who, were gathering their records and book together, brought home to bim that he was standing in a Senate that he discrimed. shortly after 10 o'clock by Adolph Kraus. of Chicago. The invocation was deliv ered by Rabbi Henry Cohen, of Galveston, Tex. In a brief prayer, Rabbi Cohen asked the blessing of God upon the assembly, "gathered from the North and the South, and the East and the West, in the interests of humanity, "Gentlemen, I move that Senator Gos-lin take the chair," said Senator Lee brotherly love and benevolence and harstanding at the head of the middle mony," so that after they had per-The words were not out of his formed their duties they might return mouth before the hand of Senator Gorto their homes and people in the con-sciousness of duty well performed." man was placed upon his shoulder while stayed to see the fight over the primary bill to its end. Senators Harper, Crothers, and Slay crowded about the two central figures of this dramatically posed pair. posed pair.

"Are Valuable Citizens."

"I promise you," President Gorman declared, belonged as much to every was then saying, "that I will let the bill go through Monday under a suspension of rules, and if we are not able to agree before the senate convenes at Aberdeen's business men are prosperous, for the tarmers of Monroe have a way of driving in from their plantations and the Hebrew mayor.

The visit of Ambassador Leishman and exchanging their cotton or cash (Continued on Page Fourteen.)

Aberdeen's business men are prosperous, for the tarmers of Monroe have a way of driving in from their plantations.

The visit of Ambassador Leishman and John W. Garrett, e-cretary of the (Continued on Second Page.)

(Continued on Page Fourteen.)

AVAIODIC LEVELLE DOULED.

AVAIODIC LEVELLE DOULED.

Valican, the royal family, the Methodist mission and the Hebrew mayor.

The visit of Ambassador Leishman and the Hebrew mayor.

The visit of Ambassador Leishman and John W. Garrett, e-cretary of the last work done in the House by Mr. the last work done in the House by Mr. the last work done in the House by Mr. the last work done in the House by Mr. the last work done in the House by Mr. the last work done in the House by Mr. the last work done in the House by Mr. the last work done in the House by Mr. the last work done in the House by Mr. and those with me will agree to let the bill go through without any amendation of the Jew Mr. Payne referred to the fact that the appreciation of the Jew Mr. Payne referred to the fact that thore is reason to believe the success of the bill of the high type among the Jews, such ments, other than those adopted in the lowe.

Mrs. Sage is to go over the plans of the bill with the never left alive. After delivering his eulogy Mr. Payne took the the senate stood adjourned.

The visit of Ambassador Leishman and the Hebrew mayor.

Mr. Payne referred to the fact that the appreciation of the Jew Mr. Payne took Monday morning. I agree to the bill go the proving the providence of the plan in that fleid will be followed by broadening its scope.

Mrs. Sage is to go over the plans of the plan in that fleid will be followed by broadening its scope.

Mrs. Sage is to go over the plans of the plan in that fleid will be followed by broadening its scope.

Mrs. Sage

elegates that if they wanted anything

delegates that if they wanted anything in Washington they were to tell his friend, "young Simon Wolf," whose orders the District Commissioners were accustomed to obey.

Mr. Wolf welcomed the delegates, and assured them of the assistance of the Jewish citizens of Washington in the work they were carrying out. He anneunced that welcomes had been received by the local committee from the Board of Trade, Chamber of Commerce, and the Commercial Club.

Praises District

Praises District. President Kraus, replying to Mr. Ru-iolph and Mr. Wolf, complimented the city of Washington, which he said, was growing rapidly as a city of cities among the nations, and would soon The hus- be to all liberty loving people what an agreement with her husband to live band has lived up to that agreement Rome was to the civilization of ancient apart in a sort of trial divorce for ever since the contract expired nearly a times.

seemed to have any trouble in gaining admittance to the rear rooms. Sunday from the sale on men followed their usual street in the sale on men followed their usual street in the sale on men followed their usual street in the sale on men followed their usual street in the sale on men followed their usual street in the sale on men followed their usual street in the sale on men followed their usual street in the sale on men followed their usual street in the sale on men followed their usual street in the sale on men followed their usual street in the sale on men followed their usual street in the sale on men followed their usual street in the sale on men followed their usual street in the sale on the sale on the stage, making on the stage, making the self of the serious of the serious of the serious of the stage, making on the stage, making the self of the stage of the stage of the sale on the stage, making on the stage, making the self of the stage of the stage of the sale of the stage of the Alabama Flooring, Good, $2.25 per 100 ft. Georgia Flooring, Heart (No. 2), $2.75 Common Flooring, $1.75 per 100 feet. Frank Libbey Co., 6th & New York Ave. per 100 ft. Frank Libbey Co., 6th & Frank N. Y. Ave.—Advt.

erintendent of banks, who made up the details of the scheme, is confident that she will approve them and that the IN WIFE GETTING DECREE the Chair.

Senate Is Adjourned.

Compromise Proposed.

about the excited group hastily gathered the newspaper men and the few who

Mrs. Sara E. A. Puffer, of Salem, Freed From Minister Husband After Twenty-three Years of Married Life and Separation.

BOSTON, April 3 .- After having signed | month from her husband.

three years, Mrs. Sara E. A. Puffer has year ago, and it was stated through secured a divorce decree nisi from her husband, the Rev. Charles H. Puffer, of Salem. The extraordinary pact between the minister and his wife bound them Tuesday.

Vice President Sherman made one of his periodical visits to his country place.

The minister and his wife bound them to live apart for three years, to remain silent regarding their specific troubles, to say nothing unkind of each other, and then if, at the end of that other, and then if, at the end of that of the country place.

The contract between the couple was drawn up after they had been married meanly a score of years and while Mr. Puffer was pastor of the First Unities, to say nothing unkind of each other, and then if, at the end of that other was pastor of the provided by the country place.

The contract between the couple was